Mosman Park Pose Threat To Melville

Mosman Park's premiership campaign continues to gather momentum following their enormous win over Midland at Tom Perrott Reserve last Sunday.

Mosman Park won 54.41 to Midland 3.5 in an almost faultless display of team football. After problems with injury and form early in the season, Mosman Park are now playing first class football and will certainly threaten Melville's unbeaten record when the two teams meet in the third round.

Southern Port—Hamilton, another premiership candidate, had a comfortable 40 point win over Swan Valley at Swan Valley Sportsmen's Oval last week. Southern Port have been off the boil in recent weeks, but with some tough matches coming up in the next month they should return to their strong early season form.

Cockburn have also been experiencing a mid-season slump, but they are showing no signs of climbing out of it. They were simply outplayed by a young and highly enthusiastic Belmont side last week and eventually went down 17.6 to 13.17. Belmont led throughout the match and will cause all of the top teams a few headaches in the final round of qualifying fixtures.

Today the two Port teams, Southern Port and Cockburn, meet in the match of the day at Davilak oval.

Last time these two teams met, Cockburn took the honours, but on recent form Southern Port must be favoured to win this important game.

Centreman Sam Maskos can continue his dynamic form of last week, and Southern Port can take control of the ball through John Florenca, Martin Rodriguez and Pat Glynn, and their tight defence can hold fast. Southern Port should win.

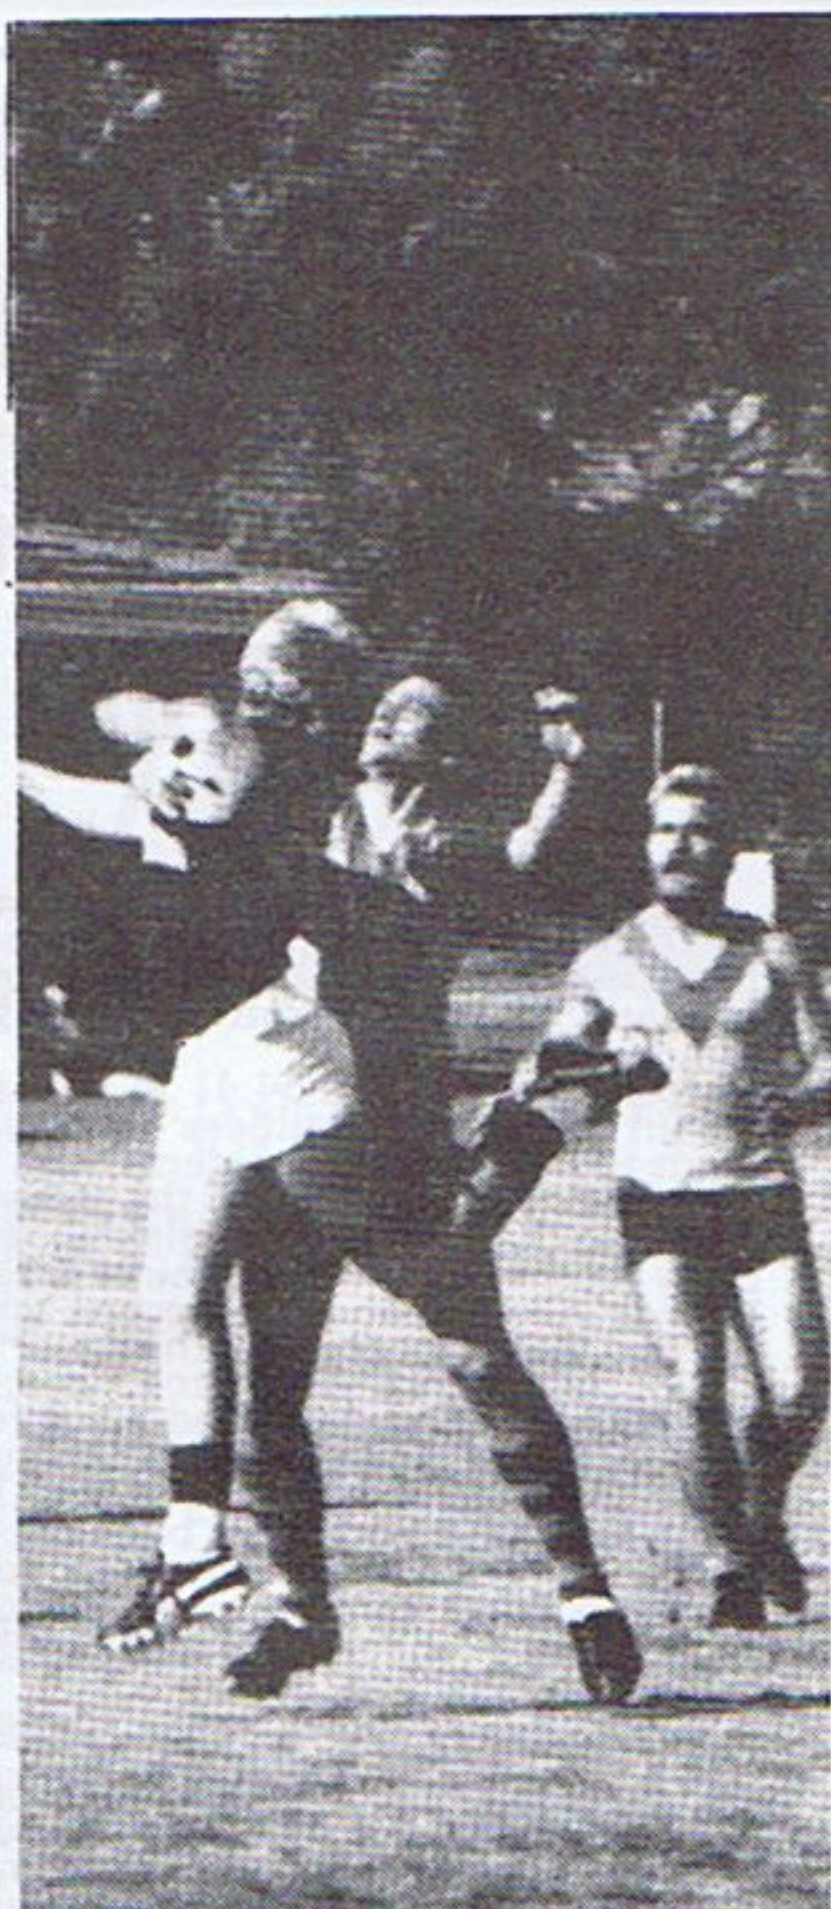

Cockburn will again rely on the tireless work of centre-half-back Randall Prowse and full-back Neil McCarthy, but they will need plenty of drive from their centreline players and following division if they are to beat Southern Port-Hamilton today.

Melville, who had a bye last week, face Belmont at Forster Park. After Belmont downed Cockburn last Sunday Melville will be on their toes to make sure the same fate does not happen to them. Belmont have an inform first ruck with Eddie Hoyer in strong form and rover Ray Chadd also doing well. Chad's brother Gordon has been a consistent player in the centre and he will give strong support mid-field.

Belmont's livewire half-forward John Dimmer played in a back pocket last Sunday and is likely to be used in the same position today. But Melville should win, with their strong ruck duo of Paul Lyon and Noel Cooper and their brilliant roving combination of Kevin Regan and Nipper Truscott they are likely to control play on the ball.

In the centre they have Gareth Stewart in good form and Melville's defence has been consistent throughout the year.

In the other W.A.F.A game today Swan Valley take on Midland at Midland Oval. Midland have been struggling and it's unlikely they have the depth to cause an upset against Swan Valley today.

Cockburn Coach Calls For Greater Effort From Team

Congratulations must go to Kim Cook for leading our reserves team to another good win last week. Kim not only led the team as acting captain, but he also was the team's best player in a fine display of ruck-roving. Kim was well supported by Stewart Johnston and Derek Harper who worked hard all day.

Commiserations to our league players for their defeat last week. While our colts and reserves are in the lime-light due to their on field success, our league team is not to be forgotten.

The league team will always be the leaders of the club, and as such every player in the club must aspire to be selected in the league team.

Garry Stewart has put his heart and soul into his role as league coach, in his first year of coaching a senior team. Garry is still aiming to take out the premiership flag this year and over the remaining games of the season he will require the support of all players and supporters as we march towards the finals.

For the third game in a row Graham McCarthy has given an outstanding display in the league team last week. Randall Prowse, Alan Bell and Tony Gumina also chipped in with good games, being three of the sides most consistent players this season.

The club thanks John Rodgers and the Boxcar Blues Jean Shop for their great effort they have put in supplying Windcheaters, carrying the club's insignia. The whole project was John's idea and the excellent standard of the wincheaters is a credit to him.

Tickets for the "Quiz Night" to be held on Friday, 10th August can now be purchased from Russell Morgan or Frank Wenham. If the night is anything like the Quiz Night held earlier this season, then it will be a sell-out.

So get your tickets now.

Remember - "Three teams in the four in '84".

EAGLE EYE

PROFILE

Dick is married with one child and is a maths teacher at Balcatta High School. He is in his fourth year with the W.A.F.A and last year he finished off a top year by umpiring the reserves Grand Final.

However, Dick the president of our Umpires Association has had a year of ups and downs. He started off slowly, then got into stride, then injury set in and he has just recovered his confidence. A nagging knee injury is still a problem and he feels his fitness has suffered, however lets hope he recovers in time to show us all exactly how good an umpire he really is

CHANGE IN TRAINING

We will be training at Perry Lakes on 2th August followed by a feed and a few beers at the Hotel Floreat. It is compulsory for all umpires, and we will be also inviting some of our old umpires along, so we can catch up with the latest. So, see Dick Hunter or Vally Pausin for further details.

All the best for your 50th, Gerry Lovegrove.

BELMONT WIN WELL

Another three quarter effort was not quite enough for the reserves team to take the game away from Cockburn last week. Top performances by Darryl Mills in the ruck and in the forward line and brilliant defence by Murray Stewart at centre-half-back helped the side be up with Cockburn at three quarter time.

Other good performances were from Marty Stewart in the centre and Brad Harper on the ball. "Harps" back from a weeks rest, burnt with a splendid five goal tally for the day.

The league team finally got it together for four full quarters. After jumping out of the blocks and being about four goals in front at the first change, they fought hard all day to keep Cockburn out of the game.

Strong marking by Eddie Hoyer, Ross McKenzie and "Cuppa" helped the team through, along with some excellent roving by Ray and Gordon Chadd. Greg Thomas played well at full-back and Ross Patrairca did well on a half-back-flank.

Overall it was a top team effort in which all Belmont spectators enjoyed. It is good to see so many supporting the club, especially as far away as we were last week.

COSTLY ERRORS ROB SWANS

Things didn't turn out right for Swan Valley last week-end. Two loses that could have well been victories. Both teams were in with a chance at three quarter time, but couldn't put it together in that vital last term and went down.

The reserves played well all day but failure to capitalise on our opportunities, particularly in the second quarter resulted in a loss. The reserves are in a position to make the final four, but if we are to do so, then a more concrete effort is required.

The league were unlucky to lose, with the scores level at three quarter time.

It looked as though we might grab the four points, but unfortunately a few errors through inexperience cost us the game. However it was good to see younger players in Tony Malaspina, Silvy Wright and Robbie Sangali play well. Other good performances were put in by Doug Pendlebury, John Carrots, Neil Sumich and Mick Jose.

Thankyou to Josie Daniels for doing the canteen.

There is a players review on 4th August and it should be a great night. It's only $5.00 per head, so get your gang together and come along.
